Professional Cards.

J. B. DAVIS, M. D., Physiciam & Surgeon, OFFICE at his residence, corner of Main and OJames streets, Brookville, Ind.

DR. J. W. KEELY, Surgeon Dentist. HOUSE, UP STAIRS. All work warrantd. No.

THUS KILGORE, Justice of the Peace and Athernoy and Counsellor atlaw, Brookville at. Office south East Corner of Public Square.

M'C. CROCKSHANK, Attorney and Counseller at Law. Office in Hatte's building, okvilte, Indiana. 43-53

J. M. CLURE, Attornoyal Law. Office-no. Burgematreet, two doors north of Geo. Hol-ad's Office, Brookville. 45-752

EVAN OWENS.

ATTORNEY AT LAW & NOTARY PUBL C, ALF. WARD, okville, Indiana. Office two doors north Burton's Store. N. R. MORRIS, M. D., Physician & Surgeon

Mt. Carmel, Ind., 21-22-'53- year. DENTAL SURGEONS,

Mt. Carmel, Ind., Will do all work entracted to their carn with seatness and pispatch. Jun 30 3mo MOSES J. KELLEY, Attorney at Law and Notary Public,

One door South of the Valley House,

Brook ville, lud.,

Will take acknowledgments of Deeds, take and certify Depositions, Affidavits &c.

HARRISON DIRECTORY. PENNY .- DEALER IN GROCERIES AND keeps on hand a good assortment of all articles in ALSO-a general assortment of

FURNITURE. Which he will sell cheap for cash or country pro-duce. oct 27 45 1654. MILTON TURRELL -ONE DOOR EAST OF AMERICAN, FRENCH AND ENGLISH DRY

Bounets and Bonnet Trimmings of all styles and Ludies, Misses and Childrens' Snors kept con-stantly on hand. oct 27 45

BRUNER & LEMON -DEALERS IN FANCY and Domestic Day Gooss, Ladies Dress Goods of every kind.

Groceries, Hardware, Queensware, Hoots, Shoes Carputing, &c.,
Corner Market and Walnut Streets, HARRIBON, ORIO.

DE E. E. FULLER. - DRALER IN DR'GS. tuffe, dec., Corner Main and Market Streets,

HARRISON, OHIO. THIO HOTEL -CORNER MAIN & MARKET

HARRISON, OHIO. D. FISHER, Proprietor.

All Sorts of Items.

Small faults indulged, are little thieves that let in greater. Gaming, like quicksand, may swallow a man in a minute.

fined 40s, for the assault. Parliament are natives of the United the sole purpose of glorifying God .-

to the distractions of the world.

VENNING. set some truths before him. Fontenelle describes a lover as a

The Indianapolis papers state that not yet hardened, nor a course of dis- transported for life?

All that God does is well done .- and rents so high, and indulgences so prayed for gold.

HENRY. few, and penalties so many. There Every Christian should be a martyr were fines for everything, and no alin spirit .- ANONYMOUS.

The Christian shines brightest when surrounded by flames. They illumisurrounded by flames. They illumisurrounded by flames. They illumifor, and if a child picked a bit of fagnate and refine without consuming and murnoint an advocate to conduct his deor any other time-nonored right; the Once at nome, the sad truth soon and become in fact, a large portion of Court to hasten his execution.

Often seem troublesome or useless, but reed the was told. Roger's look alone spoke ingit so much?"

Once at nome, the sad truth soon and become in fact, a large portion of Court to hasten his execution.

Being however, again urged to apfor, and if a child picked a bit of fagour circulating medium, and we shall our circulating medium, and we shall our circulating medium, and then, indeed, a time as will fill them. Great care apers there announce the Intelligence now and then, he would affect to think had repented; let him be humbled bethus: "The Know-Nothings have swept the State high and dry!"

It is the same would affect to think had repented; let him be humbled befor death; but I submit to the required for God, but not confess to man.—
not breathe the wicked wish; even if formality. My friend may undertake to command our gratitude.

The State high and dry!"

It is the same would affect to think had repented; let him be humbled benot breathe the wicked wish; even if formality. My friend may undertake to command our gratitude.

The State high and dry!"

It is the same would affect to think had repented; let him be humbled benot breathe the wicked wish; even if formality. My friend may undertake to command our gratitude.

The same had been punished for it, and he me.

Of ather, "murmured Grace, "do only one innocent pernot breathe the wicked wish; even if formality. My friend may undertake to command our gratitude.

The same had been punished for it, and he me.

Of ather, "murmured Grace, "do only one innocent pernot breathe the wicked wish; even if formality. My friend may undertake to command our gratitude.

The bootles task, and thus show his to command our gratitude.

The bootles task, and thus show his to command our gratitude.

Moetry.

ADDRESS TO A JUG OF RUM.

Here, only by a cork controll'c, And stender walls of earthen mould; In all the pomp of death repose, The seeds of many a bloody nose.

The chattering tongue, the berrid oath

The flat for fighting nothing loath; The pession which no word can tame.

That bursts like sulphur into fame. The nose carbuncted, glowing red, The bloated eye, the broken head,

The tree that bears the deadly fruit,

The giddy thought an mischief bent;

To My Boy in Heaven.

The nursery shows thy pictured wall,

The clock and bonnet, club and ball-

A corner holds thy empty chair, Thy play-things idly scattered there

But speak to us of our despair.

E'en to the last, thy every word,

Was sweet as sweetest song of bird

Death o'er thy spirit cust a shude, And like the rainbow thou didst fade.

We mourn for thee when cold, blank night

We pine for thee when morn's first light

The sun, the moon, the stars, the sea,

Are changed-we saw the world throu'

And thou perchance a smile might gleam

All to the wall-flower and wild pea,

It doth not own, whate'er may seem,

We misa thy small step on the stall We miss thee at thine evening prayer;

All day we miss thee overywhere.

Yes, 'tie sweet balm to our despair,

That Heaven is God and thou art there

There past are death and all is woes;

There beauty's stream forever glows,

And pleasure's day no sunset knows.

Farewell, then-for a while farewell,

Time's shadows like the shuttle fee,

And dark howe'er life's night may be,

Beyond the grave I'll most with the e.

Selected Cale.

THE CROCK OF GOLD.

MARTIN FARQUHAR TUPPER,

AUTHOR OF

"PROVERBIAL PHILOSOPHY."

CHAPTER VII.

It cannot be that long we dwell

In outward beauty undecayed,

Thy boat, thy bow,

But where art thou?

Toglad, to grieve,

Thy chamber M's:

Of casual mirth;

An inward birth:

Fond, dearest boy!

With him in joy,

Pride of my heart!

Thus torn spart.

idensthe hills.

Of murder, maining and dispute.

Assault that innocence desails, The images of gloomy juils;

The midnight hourin riot spent; All these witnin this jug appear, And Jack, the hangman in the rear. to Simon, it was as much as his own place was worth to remit one single penny of a fine, or make the least in lulgence for calamity; whilst, as to lowering a cotter's rent, or raising a litcher's wages, he dared not do it for his life; folks must not blame him, but to Simon, it was as much as his own rowfully, with a face full of gentle trust in God's blessing on the morrow's indient to simon for these Grace listened sortower. And tro rowfully, with a face full of gentle trust in God's blessing on the morrow's indient to simon for these Grace listened sortower. And tro rowfully, with a face full of gentle trust in God's blessing on the morrow's indient to simon to simply the wife, heard to ligion." I poor fully, as a simon for the second of the sec plan, shrugging upon his shoulders to poor, and a sober courage to confront the men at the master's meanness. evil, which he little had imagined. The grave not unfrequently contains the ashes of a loved one, which must shrewd observer, was playing the unjust steward to admiration.

But stop: let us hear the other side; it is possible we may have been mistaken. Bailiffs are never popular, particularly if they are too honest, and this one is a stern man with repulsive manner. Who knows whether his advice to Acton may not have been wise to Acton may not have been wise and kind, and would not have conduced and kind. And would not have conduced and kind and so would not have conduced and kind and so would not have conduced and kind and so would not have been wise the stable was all to do us good,"—the fair after the would such systematic roguery against a man hitherto so strict, so punctual, so sanctimonious? Even in the case of Sir John's golden gift, Jennings may be right after all; it is quite possible that Roger was mistaken, and had gift a piece of silver with his longings; and the upright man might well take umbrage at so vile an imputation as that hot and silly speech; it was foolish. very fooilsh, to have quote I text against him, and no wonder that the laborer got dismissed for it. Then again to return to wages, -who knows? it mighbe, all things considered, the only way of managing a rise; the bailtff mus know his master's mind best, and Acton had been wise to have done as he bade him: perhaps it really was well mount, and might have got him twelve shillings a week instead of eight as hitherto; perhaps Simon was a shrewd man, and arranged it cleverly; perhap-

A very miserable man was Roger but think others so. Acton now, for this last trial was the | Any how, though, all was lost now. worst of all. The vapors of his dis- and he blamed his own rash tongue. It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that sixty Baptist churches in Massachusetts are without pastors.

It is said that si ter all—the bailiff always had a queer new risks, encounter fresh dangers, way with him. Or, if indeed the man lose everything, get nothing, and all meant robbery, loudly to threaten him, the trouble taken merely to starve three that all might hear, to bring the house thousand miles from home. No no where they slept, and, and, -that sing! found a crock of gold!"

it, is to make it our own; to produce it, is to make it more than our own.—

J. A. James.

Out. (ay, and mis guardians before him you had prayed in your distress; stop. it was unanimously declared innocent of the murder: his passion cost him two may have it.

National currency; let them use the power and assert their rights, and we sind it was not for help, or guidance, or the gold were honest gains, still. fath-way have it.

National currency; let them use the power and assert their rights, and we sind interfed.

Was thus femored from its bosoni: He was unanimously declared innocent of the murder: his passion cost him two may have it.

National currency; let them use the power and assert their rights, and we sind interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and assert their rights, and we sind interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and assert their rights, and we sind interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and assert their rights, and we sind interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

National currency; let them use the power and interfed.

CHAPTER VIII.

could be so hard upon the poor; he would be so, credit him, if he had been born a gentleman, but the bailing, men, must obey orders, like the rest or you; these are hard times for Hurstley, he would say, and we must all rub over them as best we can. According to Simon, it was as much as his own plane; to these Grace listened sorrowfully, with a face full of gentle trust in luigence for calamity; whilst, as to lowering a cotter's rent, or raising a mill-fortune, no ebolition of unjust in lowering a cotter's rent, or raising a mill-fortune, no ebolition of unjust in lowering a cotter's rent, or raising a mill-fortune, no ebolition of unjust in land of the persuance of the last time has now gone by. The sudden dismissal, the sure ruin, the would the gold be rightfully your own. A merican people bave abundant resources of their own, for all commercial parposes, if properly brought to beer—which never can be fully your own, for all commercial parposes, if properly brought to beer—which never can be fully your of the last time has now gone by. The American people bave abundant resources of their own, for all commercial parposes, if properly brought to beer—which never can be fully your other without one hope in othink about the right.'

'Ay, Grace, first drive away the toils and troubles of this life,' added Rogard to sunder the common that is up to day on the most painful duty that the gold the down is the world and find the cial parposes, if properly brought to beer—which never can be fully your on the most painful duty that the gold the children, and then one in suddent dismissal, the sure ruin, the world and find the gold the professional career. Though he deer mined a system of bank on the rest of this life,' added Rogard to Simon, it was as much as his own pared to beer—which never can be fully done, and troubles of this most part and the most painful duty the with a force full of the professional career. Though the cial parposes, if properly brought to sunder the gold one, and the most painful duty the day one his life; folks must not blame him, bu | vexing sneers, no selfish apprehensions. Now, all this, in the long absence looked for blessing come already to of any definite resident master at the console poor Roger; and no little com-Hall, sounded reasonable, if true; and pensation for his trouble was the way

Far from it; there really was one un-

made the laborer hide his needs, and intercepted at its source the lord's be scolding, as Mary had been ever tion. When others are bereaved, they nevolence, he began to be found out, so the bolder spirits said, in filching vith both hands from man and mas vith both hands from m ter; and, to the mind of more than one shrewd observer, was playing the un-

Then with a heavenly smile upon be nothing peculiar in it, many re-good to read them too:-O let thine ears consider well the ded as an incumbrance and that their it would command the specie at any confessed, on further examination, that voice of my complaint.

mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who are so regarded, at least by many.

Therefore shall thou be feared.

I look for the Lord, my soul doth age renders comfort to her, and she A Case of Circumstantial Evidence. ore the morning watch-before the ward of the faithful. morning watch.

O Israel, trust in the Lord: for with the Lord there is merey; and with him Roger was an honest man, and could'nt is plenteous redemption.

about his ears, and force justice, if he at this time of life, he could not be could not fawn it. But both these leaving for ever old friends, old habits, conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. In conflicting expedients were vetoed.— old fields, old home, old neighborhood. It is a poor relief from sorrow to fly that all might hear, to bring the house thousand miles from home. No. no, trenches in the sedge; and I was these same Bankers and Brokers, in frightened by the report and relieved could. conflicting expedients were vetoed - old fields, old home, old neighborhood, looked dark and sorrowful, and kindly thirty or forty times gives a net profit George, pale as death, immediately that there remained not the slightest ly of the Methodist Church West Jer-Death breaks the lantern, but can not put out the candle.—

W. Jackson.

We lost a paradise by sin, and have gained a heaven by the Cross.—

Charrock.

Charrock.

It is a merey to have that six a merey to have that taken in the sightest of the single six and sorrowful, and kindly thirty or forty times gives a net profit said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In other words, undied thirty or forty times gives a net profit said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In other words, undied thirty or forty times gives a net profit said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In other words, undied to supply the said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In other words, undied to supply the said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In other words, undied to supply the said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In other words, undied to supply the said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In other words, undied to assist his friend, who was weltering in his blood; the paroxysm into a ten-foot hedge; where the very simply in exchange, every dime of passion was over, and had given the strangeness of his winged presence, which goes to swell the treatment of the supplied to assist his friend, who was weltering in his blood; the paroxysm into a ten-foot hedge; where the very simply in exchange, every dime of passion was over, and had given the strangeness of his winged presence, which goes to swell the treatment of the strangeness of his having actually committed to supply the said, 'What would you have, Roger?' In othing fearful in my dream for all it every dollar has paid its first cost weltering in his blood; the paroxysm into a ten-foot hedge; where the very simply in exchange, every dime of passion was over, and had given the supplied with the supplied to assist his friend, who was beautiful to assist his friend, who was the interest cost well the treatment of the supplied to assist his friend, who was beautiful to It is a mercy to have that taken to morrow morning, when, come what his forefathers had worshipped from minute wonderingly. turned to look would not be unreasonable to suppose, Overwhelmed with despair and an-mere youth a career of sensuality had fer the convict's doom, and seek to be within the last two days."

fully, and answered nothing. TO RE CONTINUED. PARE condition of his tenants; but this could have the child, and don't look quite so downcast; come what may, I'll share children's graves and weep, and enjoy your cares, and you shall halve my pleasures; we will fight it out to-which no one dared to disobey; he gether." may not enjoy even such a pleasure. Moreover, cross, and figetty, and But there is still a more painful privato keep the smile alight, her gentle onstrate that preachers ought not to voice read these words,-it will do'ut have children. death is a public blessing. The many If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to assurances that she receives, that they causes her to feel sad in her own fam-Because there is mercy with thee, ily. But the thought that such trials

Correspondence. CONNERSVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

Por the American. THE BANKS.

And he shall redeem Israel from all thoughts to paper on the above sub- place.

from us which takes us from God .- might, he resolved to seehis honor, and the Conquest, and the vast amount of guish, he tore his hair, and afterwards the proceedings, with accompaniments, paper money in circulaton, once in ev- galloped back to the village, to sur- were returned, and the ball exactly Acton was not the only man on the one precious grave of his dear lost on the leave it? Oh God, the devil; he has dropt ill thoughts up- longer or shorter, the people are thus as the murderer of his friend, that he on the murderer at the time of his apman who in his anxiety to obtain pos-lord, generous, to say prodigal, a warm no! he had done no ill, he h hearted, well-intentioned master, whose mitted no crime, -why should be pre- as you used to be, dear father, till wholesale robberies by failures and was now the most oppressive burden Let the sympathizing reader now frauds. If the people are content and to him. The officer to whom he de- endeavor to form some conception of "Whoever he were, if he brought satisfied with this state of affairs in our livered himself up sent him under a the transport of Lewis on having saved a wagon load of the notes of the Stock sipation been prolonged enough to dis. A miserable walk home was that, me gold, he would bring me blessing. currency-all right. If they are not, guard to the town where the friends his friend! Let him figure to himself Banks were returned one day last week tort his feelings from the right. And and full of wretched thoughts. Poor There's meat and drink, and warmth and wish to experiment yet longer, the resided. The body of Ernest, whose the joy of George, when the painful and wish to experiment yet longer, the resided. The body of Ernest, whose the joy of George, when the painful and shelter, in the yellow gold,—ay, time is theirs. If, on the contrary, pockets were found rifled, was also consciousness of an atrocious crime To rejoice in the happinessof oth- who wondered how, with such a land- vexed with sore oppression, I wish that and rest from labor, child, and a pow- they desire a safe, sound and healthly conveyed thither and interred.

their looks,) wages could be kept so low, patience, or consolation, —he only and rents so high, and indulgences so prayed for gold.

Let the American people have a speedy death. His examination was before his tears ceased to flow for his or five days in the following process: and happiness, and wisdom. Money currency equal to gold and silver, and closed, and he was informed that he gives us none of these, but it might the specie will no longer be profitable was at liberty to choose an advocate to ball, the instrument of Gerge's detake them away, dear father let your to retain it in the safes of Backe s and defend him, as the law requires; but liverence, as a memorial of this extra- med milk, as much only as will serve lowances of hedgebote, or housebote, or housebote, or any other time-honored right; the one at home, the sad truth soon loving Grace ask you, have you been be, it will be thrown into circulation, lege, and with tears besought the loving Grace ask you, have you been be, it will be thrown into circulation, lege, and with tears besought the loving Grace ask you, have you been be, it will be thrown into circulation, lege, and with tears besought the

ANTI-PET BANKS.

[For the American.

her face, and a happy heart within her marks are made, so as to clearly dem. up the present system adopted by the of the supreme tribunal in the metrop- 'You are a brick,' was again the brokers of our large cities, and they would no doubt oppose such a Bank, as it would utterly ruin their business.

There is one upon whom these trials

The Farmer Mechanic or Merchant "Out of the deep have I called unto fall heavily. It is not for a mother to The Farmer, Mechanic or Merchant, was brought to that town. Convicted young man, how you attempt to insult would feel perfectly rafe in taking and by sufficient evidence, he acknowledged me."

Miscellaup.

time or place.

his sins."

ject, setting forth briefly the claims of One summer's day Ernest and Geo. done, as he had a companion? However, thought I to myself, I have a worst of all. The vapors of his disconting was man in a minute.

The man that struck a bargain,' was fined 40s, for the assault.

Five members of the Canadian variance are natives of the United ltates.

The way of all. The vapors of his disconting was being rash tongue, content had almost passed away—that box again; I think it's 'troubles' eithere, or least-ways in the Bible-version, of the sentiments advocated.

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to a minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute.

"Isn't the want to minute.

"Isn't the last word 'treubles,' child?

The want to minute. Next to a policeman, there is nothing of the policeman, the policeman is present system: or for the one sught the policeman is the present system: or for the one sught the policeman is the present system: or for the one sught the policeman is the police of the present system: or for the one sught the present system: or for the one sught the policeman is the present system: or for the one sught th Next to a policeman, there is noth- bestowed by his hereditary landlord- his cnemy? How could be face his 'troubles,' from all his troubles,' from all his troubles,' from all his troubles,' from all his troubles,' The Rev. Mr. Sunrise, a converted Indian of the Onedia tribe, is lecturing in Portsmouth.

The Rev. Mr. Sunrise, a converted then can see nobody; the baronet will made both a prisoner and a slave, all than sins: there is no deliverance in dy knows, or may know that there is by the time they had entered a wood in Portsmouth.

A pretty young lady accosted a credition. I fired at the same moment. My tor thus: "Husband has made me a Mammon; riches profit not in the day now more specie in the United States by the time they had entered a wood in Portsmouth."

Then he made a vain ef-gruel, and a pauper's branded livery. Of evil, and ill-got wealth tends to than at any previous time; yet it comtine." mands a high rate, and never finds its degenerated into downright personality his horse, was engaged for a short and is still doing much. Shall the great questions of Bank reform com-great questions of Bank reform com-pose a portion of its labors? There es replied that this ceremony seemed repeat. Educate your hands; it will are numerous other considerations, unnecessary and superfluous, as the which, it is hoped, abler pens will premurderer had voluntarily confessed the knew a man who, with a good trade sent, and better heads discuss. sent, and better heads discuss.

deed; but if he (the advocate) insisted failed of getting a good living, and a living and on the examination of the body, it much more with right application.— Mr. Jennings punctually paid, however bad the terms; so the poor men bode their time, and looked for better days. And the days long looked for now were come; but were they any better? The baronet, indeed, seemed bent upon inquiry, reform, redress; bank now have they any but as he never went without the right application.—

INCOMNERSVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

And the people was the way in swife received the news. He, units wife received the news. He unsuccessful. At first it would appear kindness towards him, a solemn indigthat the bailiff had gone upon his old nation against those who grind the often happens that circumstances should such be the case? It seemed too large—he accordingly to work—to conquer. He but trans-tried it in all possible ways—still it ters himself from the shop to the sindy. would not go in. That this ball could Young man, decide at once to learn a ED. AMERICAN.—The grand object not be fired by that pistol was evident trade, apply yourself with all your of the Democrats for the last twenty to every observer; the judges looked at years, has been to give us a hard curone another and shook their heads.— if you are not obliged to work at it, rency, and they have at last succeeded in giving us one that would satisfy the most fastidious lover of hard currency. As the currency that we now have is certainly the hardest of the hard.

There was not a person but had completely made up his mind respecting the guilt of the prisoner; but this circumstance quite confounded them all.

The confession of the prisoner, made

'You are not obliged to work at it, you are not obliged to work at it, you have laid by so much, and such a kind of wealth can never be taken from you.—Amer. Agriculturalist.

'You are not obliged to work at it, you have laid by so much, and such a kind of wealth can never be taken from you.—Amer. Agriculturalist.

'You are not obliged to work at it, you have laid by so much, and such a currency that we now have is cumstance quite confounded them all.

The confession of the prisoner, made two months before, he had murdered it?" and being still further questioned, dignation.

"About that time I happened to be I answered your question. My name is wait for him: in his word is my trust. looks forward to her permanent home, In a small town of Saxony lived in a village public-house. Two men U. R. A. Brick-Urish Reynolds An-My soul fleeth unto the Lord, bewhere she and hers shall enjoy the rethree young men, whom we will call ore the morning watch—before the ward of the faithful.

W. S.

George, Ernest and Lewis, and who girdle filled with money fastened round sor, sinking back into his seat in contached to one another. George and his body underneath his waistcoat. I fusion. 'It was a misconception on Ernest were merchants; Lewis studied began to consider whether it was not my part. Will you commence the les-A short time ogo I committed a few the law, and practised in his native possible to possess myself of this rich son, Mr.—ahem—Mr. Brick?

was thus removed from his bosom! He often seem troublesome or useless, but Feed the fowls four or five times a nate and refine, without consuming of the father was mulcted in a shillim.—W. Jackson.

The Warmen of the father was mulcted in a shill heart or hope to keep the matter seplainly, he that gives me gold gives hear no more complaining and murpoint an advocate to conduct his depoint an advocate to con The Know-Nothings have been soalways pleaded fits employers' orders; the early morning's sin; why should be?
the de—the angel, I mean, brought while statistics show the country is rectorious in Massachusetts, that the nay, if any grumbled, as men would He had been punished for it, and he plete with it—though fast in the lockthe mean things: I wish I found the crock mering for the want of "change," tence, he named his friend Lewis.—
cape the punishment due to his guilt, sour given them, as it prevents their while statistics show the country is replete with it—though fast in the lockthere needs no defence: I wish only but if, in the course of a century, they plete with it-though fast in the lock- "there needs no defence; I wish only but if, in the course of a century, they fattening. Give them clean water or to a general rise of wages? Who can rectionate girl, unused to the accents whether they are sickly or not, if sick such fluctuations or panics as we now the more readily accepted, as the lo- ling out of his chair at the supposed have, and a man could travel from cal court was puzzled how to act, and impertinence, but not quite sure that he ir arms round Mary Acton's neck, year or not. Then, again, comes the Maine to Texas without any danger of absolutely unable to pronounce any he had understood him correctly, Sir, it would command the specie at any confessed, on further examination, that turn astonished. How have I done another man on the same road. This 'Did you not say I was a brick?' recircumstance had excited suspicion, turned the Professor, with stifled in-related the following particulars: 'No sir, you asked me my name, and entary and fever, in Troy, at the house of IRev. H. W. Ransom, on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 21st. "I will be ever with my bitterest foe," Revenge excialms, and then returns the blow "I'll be superior," should the Christian say, And kind forgiveness readily display. Anonymous

It does not requires great learning to be a Christian, and to be convinced of the truth of the Bible. It requires in honest heart, andpa willingness to obey God .- A. BARNES.

Fowls may be fattened in four Set some rice over the fire with skim-